

The Weatherspoon Art Museum's Contemporary Collectors Group

Join one of the Weatherspoon's most active, lively, and inquisitive groups.

Participants in this special interest group enjoy invitation-only events, including brunches with visiting artists, critics, and other collectors; exhibition previews with the artists; and travel opportunities (both locally/regionally and nationally) to visit museums, commercial galleries, private collections, and artists' studios.

Past trips have included New York, Los Angeles, Miami, Chicago, and Seattle.

The Contemporary Collectors is a special interest group open to all museum members. Annual membership fee for the Contemporary Collectors Group is $75 per person at the Contributor level and is available as a special perk at higher levels of contribution (including Friend, Benefactor and Patron, see benefits list for details).

All travel costs are in addition to the member fee for this group.

Call our museum administrator for more information, 336.334.5770.
